The MARNO Collection Part 3 (Lots 2-16, 18-127) - Marno Ltd started life as a wholesaler in the textile industry specialising in faux fur. With the decline of the UK textile industry, Michael the owner decided in the mid 2000s to indulge in his lifelong passion for model railways and Marno became an importer and retailer of European model railways including ROCO, RIVAROSI, BEMO and others through their website and adverts in Continental Modeller. Following Michael's retirement from the business in 2025, Excalibur are now offering the as new shop stock as well as Michael's private collection of near mint mostly unused examples over our March, May and July sales, this being the final part.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BUYING

EXCALIBUR AUCTIONS Ltd hereinafter referred to as The Auctioneer and to include any person acting upon his authority.

1. General Conditions of Sale

- a. Third Party Liability: All persons on the premises of, or at a venue hired or borrowed by The Auctioneer are there upon their own risk.
- b. They shall have no claim against the Auctioneer in respect of any accident, injury or damage howsoever caused.
- c. Admission: The Auctioneer reserves the right of admission, which in the case of a view auction will be by catalogue and registration.

2. Catalogue:

- a. Auction: All descriptions, whether printed or oral, are statements of opinion not fact.
- b. Intending purchasers should satisfy themselves as to the condition, age etc. of all pieces and lots.
- c. All goods are second hand and SOLD AS SEEN, and are exempt from the provisions of the Sale of Goods Act 1979 and subsequent amendments.
- d. All statements as to the authenticity of lots shall be statements of opinion.
Notwithstanding any other of these Terms and Conditions of Engagement, if within 7 days of the sales of any lot the purchaser gives written notice to the Auctioneer that in his or her opinion it is a deliberate forgery, as defines below, and within 14 days of such notice, returns the lot to the Auctioneer, in the same condition as it was at the time of sale and by producing evidence (the burden of proof being on the purchaser) satisfies the Auctioneer that the lot is a deliberate forgery, then the Auctioneer will be entitled to rescind the sale and will refund the purchase price to the purchaser. In the context of this guarantee 'a deliberate forgery' means a lot made with the intention to deceive when considered in the light of the catalogue entry and which at the date of sale had a value substantially less than it would have had, had it been in accordance with the description. However, there will be no right where the catalogue description, at the time of sale, was in accordance with the general opinion of experts, or fairly indicated there to be a conflict of opinion. The Auctioneers reserve the right in forming their opinion to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by them to be reliable.

3. The Auction Process.

The Auctioneer reserves the right:
